

Kymmenen Tikkua Laudalla

Overview:

A fun Finnish hide-and-seek game played outside. One player search while other players hide. It uses a simple wooden launcher made from a board and a rock.

Setup:

- Put the middle of the board on the rock like a seesaw.
- Put all 10 sticks on the lower side of the board.

Gameplay:

1. Launching the Sticks:

- One player steps hard on the high side of the board to launch the 10 sticks into the air.
- All players except the seeker run away to hide.

2. Gathering the Sticks

- The seeker must pick up all 10 sticks from the ground.
- They place all 10 sticks back on the board.
- The seeker can only start looking for hidden players after all 10 sticks are back on the board.

3. Catching Hidden Players

- When the seeker sees a hidden player, the seeker runs back to the board.
- The seeker touches the board and calls out: "Ten sticks on the board, [Player Name] seen!"
- The caught player must go to a waiting area near the board.

4. Saving Caught Players

- Any hidden player can run out of hiding and kick the board before the seeker touches it.
- Effect: The sticks fly into the air again. All caught players are freed and can hide again. The seeker must pick up all 10 sticks again before searching.

Winning:

- Seeker Wins: The seeker wins when all players are caught.
- Next Round: The first player who was caught becomes the new seeker for the next game.
